

Landlord FAQs

I haven't received any communication from the administrators?

Please send an email to uk_paperchase_property@pwc.com confirming postal and email address and a copy of the letter will be resent to you.

I am the landlord of the distribution centre in Thrapston; what is happening to my property?

Someone from the administration team will be in touch shortly. In the meantime, please email uk_paperchase_property@pwc.com to provide your contact details and someone from the administration team will be in touch.

What address shall we use to communicate with PwC and to provide other information requested?

Please use uk_paperchase_property@pwc.com to submit any queries. Information in relation to any unsecured claim you might have in the administration should be submitted via the IPS Turnkey Creditor Portal (as provided in the creditor letter).

The postal address for any queries is:
