Duration

1/2 day: 09:30 – 13:00

Who should attend?

This course is designed to outline the likely impact on the private sector of the Competitive Dialogue procedure implemented into UK law with effect from 31st January 2006. This will be particularly informative for all organisations responding to an OJEU notice placed after 31st January 2006.

Course summary

A selection of more detailed objectives are highlighted below:

- To understand what Competitive Dialogue is, and the benefits and challenges this may present to a private sector bidder
- To gain a practical understanding of how Competitive Dialogue works in practice and how this differs from other forms of Procurement Procedure (e.g. PPP/PFI)
- To be familiar with the case study experience of UK Government Departments to date on the new procurement procedure and where to find the most current guidance.

Accreditation

This course may be considered relevant for Continuing Professional Development accreditation. The maximum time attributable is three and a half hours.

Course fee

£295 + VAT per delegate

(If there are several people in your team/organisation it may be more financially viable to consider a hosted event).
