

Unlock your potential Internal Audit Tuition

IIA Diploma in Internal Audit Practice

PwC is an accredited Diploma in Internal Audit Practice tuition provider for the Institute of Internal Auditors - UK and Ireland, making us the only accountancy firm accredited to deliver IIA Diploma tuition throughout the UK.

Background in Internal Audit Tuition

PwC has one of the largest teams of financial trainers in the UK, who are constantly at the forefront of training design and delivery in the Public and Private Sectors. Our Assurance Practice is one of the largest private sector providers of audit services to local authorities, government departments and NHS bodies. Combining both credentials and the growing demand for highly competent internal auditors, led to the establishment of our internal audit training group in 1999.

Our team of skilled professional trainers has been delivering Diploma and Advanced Diploma in Internal Auditing & Management tuition successfully since 1999 and PwC is now an established tuition provider throughout the UK and Ireland.

The Benefits

Our well-established training methods are popular with employers and students alike.

Employers appreciate:

- A professional approach to student development.
- Regular and prompt feedback on attendance, assignment results and mock examinations; and
- A programme delivered over a 3-4month period, minimising disruption to audit planning.

Students benefit from:

- An encouraging and stimulating learning environment;
- Regular feedback on assignments and on-line support from experienced tutors; and
- A well-structured programme which allows for personal study between each tuition day.

Our success rate for both the IIA Diploma and IIA Advanced Diploma examinations endorses our training methodology.

Internal Audit Tuition

Internal Audit Tuition Programme

Our Internal Audit Tuition Programme provides tuition for the Diploma and Advanced Diploma modules. Training locations (dependant on demand) include Belfast, Dublin, Glasgow and London.

We also offer in-house courses for larger organisations which can be delivered on-site if requested.

Students enrolling for the Diploma and Advanced Diploma theory modules will receive:

- 4 tuition days (5 tuition days for Diploma Module 2 and the Advanced Diploma Module 2) delivered over a 3-4 month period;
- IIA study text;
- Comprehensive study pack;
- Guidance on examination technique;
- Continual assessment feedback on 2 course assignments;
- A mock exam (separate half day event): and
- On-line mentoring support from experienced trainers.

The cost per module is £1,295 plus VAT / €1,660 (£1,595 plus VAT / €2,050 for Diploma Module 2 and Advanced Diploma Module 2). Cost includes light refreshments.

Study Pack and Tuition

We are conscious of the importance of using the right mix of training media during our class room based tuition. We use a combination of multimedia presentations (PowerPoint slides and video), examples, exercises, games and case studies.

Students attending our tuition receive a comprehensive study pack under each of the knowledge areas required by the syllabus including:

- copies of power-point slides
- reading lists
- additional handouts
- past paper questions and solutions
- topical magazine articles
- guidance on examination techniques

We also make available the latest PwC publications of particular relevance.

Knowledge consolidation and ongoing personal study support

We issue, collect, mark and return 2 assignments during the classroom blocks, in addition to conducting a mock exam (a separate half day aside from tuition), to help students consolidate what they have learnt from the study material and classroom days. We have found from past experience that assignments and mock exams are an excellent way to prepare students for the exam.

We provide a structured timetable of suggested study activities for students to complete in the period leading up to the exams, to supplement the classroom based tuition.

Our course tutors are available by email and telephone to provide students with guidance on their studies, as well as provide feedback on the 2 assignments and mock exam up to the exams. We respond to all email and phone queries within 48 hours, if not immediately available.
