Statement of reasons for seeking extension

Consent to further extend the period of the administration for a 24-month period up to and including 28 February 2027 was sought for the following reasons:

Asset realisations have not yet been concluded, including;

- The Company is part of group of retailer claimants pursuing credit card claims related to historical interchange fees imposed on consumer transactions;
- Further time is required to deal with and finalise the Company's tax and VAT affairs; and
- After conclusion of the above matters, we must also deal with closure matters including drafting and issuing the final progress report, closure of our internal systems, and removal of the Administrators' bond.
