

What we want to hear from you

Theme: ‘Community of solvers in action: how you have achieved sustained outcomes by bringing together the right people. You might also like to consider how you have used technology to deliver the right solution if relevant.’ How does this relate to you and how will you make it relate to your audience?

Originality – Inspire, provoke, relate

Be creative in your approach and your interpretation of the topic. Bring your talk to life, and provoke inspired thought which captures your audience in an original, yet relatable way.

Approach – Make it count

Your approach in presenting bears just as much weight as the idea itself. You have 15 minutes to wow your audience – make it count!

Diversity – Think broad

Know your audience. Think about how to captivate them with an open mind. Your content should be relevant, insightful and appealing to our broad and diverse alumni community.

Conviction – Captivate

Create something convincing and authentic that you are passionate about. Leave your footprint, have a lasting impact, and our promise is that the reach of our active network will have the chance to hear about it.

Strategy – Calculate

Calculate your steps and think strategically. Are you laying the foundations of a new platform which can be built upon, or just expanding on one that already exists. Create something that opens up a new discussion.

Tell us why we should share your story.

Be innovative. Use the topic to bring to life something new and inspiring. A story worth telling is a story worth sharing, and we will share yours throughout our wide alumni network and beyond.

Number of talks and length: 4-5 talks (one talk per selected speaker).
Talks should be max 8-10 mins in length.

Example topics:

- Collaboration in business.
- Building trust.
- Creating lasting change.
- Leadership in changing times.
- Creating the workforce of the future.
- AI and disruptive technologies.
- Inclusion, equality and diversity.
- Globalisation.
- Sustainability.

These are just some suggestions to get you thinking. We'd love to hear your interpretation of a community of solvers in action.
