

A postcard from PwC...

I studied A Level English at School

How I use English in my work now:

- I use skills learned from AS English to condense reports in a succinct way.

My highlight of my job so far

- Since joining the firm I have enjoyed taking part in the wider PwC world, starting to volunteer for the Samaritans, working as a Global Mobility Champion and joining the One Young World Committee.
- I was surprised by how much trust I was given so quickly to participate in projects, meet clients and impact on deliverables.

If I went back in time what piece of advice would I give my 17 year old self?

It was not too long ago but I have definitely learned some things whilst at University and beyond. One piece of advice would be to keep at something you truly enjoy and invest in your happiness.
